INTERNATIONAL CERTIFICATE OF COMPETENCE RENEWAL

FAST TRACK SERVICE REQUIRED (See charges in section 5)

According to our records your International Certificate of Competence (ICC) is due for renewal. In order to renew your ICC you must still be eligible for the RYA to issue the certificate to you.

IMPORTANT - Following changes to the eligibility criteria, proof of eligibility is now required from every applicant. The requirements are detailed on the renewal form overleaf in section 1. ******

If you chose to renew your ICC, your new certificate, valid for a further 5 years, will be issued with the same categories validated as your existing certificate. The only exception to this is for certificates issued prior to 1st April 1999, where the inland category will not be re-validated unless we have proof that the holder has passed the CEVNI test. Should you require any further categories validated you will need to pass the appropriate ICC assessment or provide the documentary evidence of competence detailed in the table below.

PLEASE NOTE: Where proof of competence is required under the Merchant Shipping Regulations i.e. UK pleasure vessels exceeding both 80 GT and 24m in length and for any vessel which is used for commercial purposes, the ICC is insufficient and it must be supported by the requisite certificate of competence.
